5. Architectural Significance (Note interesting interior and exterior details, etc., cite significant alterations and additions)

A mid 19th century side hall plan double pile house much like the Duff House on rt 600 or the Cotton Plains Farm in Nansemond County, Indika is a two storey frame house with a full cellar and twin exterior chimneys connected by a later 20th century pent. On the exterior all windows have been changed as has the original siding and cornice line. The interiors are characterized by the use of unpaneled wainscote, later doors, unpaneled late Federal mantels, and a cantilevered stair with simple brackets. Of particular interest is the name of the craftsman who painted the interiors and signed and dated his work in the parlor,

"painted by Wm C Barnes 1849".
